16 Persons Hurt in Traffic Accidents

Man Escapes Burning Auto; Woman Driver Hits Cow on Highway

Sixteen persons were injured in 11 of 26 traffic accidents on Quad-City area streets and highways during the weekend. Victims included a man who escaped from his burning auto and a woman whose auto struck a cow.

Joseph Sheppard, 26, of Edwardsville, regained consciousness inside his flaming auto early Sunday morning in time to escape injuries more serious than burns to his left hand. He was treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 3:30 a.m. yesterday for second degree burns to four fingers of the left hand and was released.

Sheppard reported that his wheels locked for an unknown reason as he was driving toward Edwardsville on Route 169 near Peters Station. The car ran off the side of the road and Sheppard's head struck the windshield, knocking him unconscious. He said when he revived, the car was afire. He crawled from the wreckage and a few minutes later flagged down a passing car whose driver took him to his home. Sheppard then went to the hospital for treatment.

The car, Sheppard said, was destroyed.

Auto Hits Cow

Mrs. Audrey Dennis, 31, of Bonnie, Ill., was treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 2:30 a.m. today after her car struck a cow on Route 157 between Route 162 and Interstate 270. Mrs. Dennis complained of pain in the neck. She was released after treatment.

Two persons were injured, one seriously, in a crash involving two cars and a truck on the Chain of Rocks Interstate 270 bridge at 4:50 a.m. Sunday.

State troopers said Irene Evans, 35, of Hartford, was taken to DePaul Hospital, St. Louis, where she was reported in serious condition, while Gary A. Liston, 28, of LaGrange, Ill., was treated for minor injuries and released.

According to state police a car driven by Jess L. Paske, St. Louis, was towing the car driven by Irene Evans when the rope broke and both cars came to a stop. The Evans car was struck from the rear by Liston's truck and the Evans car was knocked into Paske's car. All vehicles were eastbound and were about in the center of the bridge just inside the Illinois line when the mishap occurred, officers reported.

4 DAYS WITHOUT A QUAD-CITY TRAFFIC DEATH

There have been no traffic deaths in Granite City for four consecutive days.

The cleanup of the old cemeteries is progressing nicely and street department crews should complete the job by Wednesday, Mayor Partney said today.

"If weather permits, there should be time to sow grass seed over the entire tract, and I have a seeder the street department can use," he added.

There have been plenty of complaints and no complaints and everyone seems to be happy about the improvement."

The mayor explained that under the terms of a recently negotiated 1940 lease giving the city authority to maintain the grounds, the area cannot be used as a playground. "We have been planning for a quiet park," he added, "so this shouldn't present a problem."

City inspectors are working with the street crews in keeping track of the exact location where each headstone is being replaced flush with the ground to provide for easier maintenance.

The inspectors are staking each site and also are keeping a location chart in the event stakes are knocked down.

Elected Village Board To Attend Meeting On Twp. Sewers

Members of the Ponton Beach Village board of trustees will attend an organizational meeting of a new citizen's committee that is expected to recommend steps to be taken to improve the sewer program for Namekoi township.

The citizen's sewer committee is scheduled to meet at 7 p.m. Thursday at the Namekoi township general assembly office, 4250 Highway 162.

Ponton Beach trustees decided to participate in the planning group's initial session and determine what action is to be considered for an overall township sewer program following a discussion last Thursday evening at the village board's monthly meeting.

Trustee Otto Kreher suggested that the village officers be kept informed on any proposals for a new sewer program in the township area. He asked Village President Thomas Staicoff if the citizens' committee had been made up of the township trustees.

Not Familiar With Aims

Staicoff said he was not too familiar with the aims and objectives of the sewer commission, but he believed that any board official interested in acquiring further information should attend Thursday's meeting, rather than appoint two specific individuals.

Several board members indicated they planned to attend the meeting.

The 16-man citizen's committee for studying proposed sewer programs in Namekoi township originally set its first session for the 14th of this month, but the meeting was rescheduled for this Thursday.

Appointees to the committee were recommended and selected by precinct committeemen from the different areas. Representatives from each of the township's precincts, together with two residents of Ponton Beach Village, are to comprise the citizen's study group.

Check on Sewer Removal

Village Clerk Elaine Phelps reported to trustees Thursday that she is checking with the state engineer to determine the approval rates allowed from motor fuel tax allotments for the removal of sewer from village streets and roadways. He said that he had initiated a study of the problem of Charles Hanks, Namekoi township highway commissioner.

Staicoff reminded board members

Governor Cites GC Steel, Other Industrial Growth

Industrial development in Illinois has maintained a steady upward trend during the first nine months of 1968, Gov. Otto Kerner commented Friday.

The governor said preliminary figures compiled by the Department of Business and Economic Development show that 107 proposed new and expanded plants were announced during the third quarter of 1968, raising the nine-month total to 352.

Of the projects announced this year, 134 are for new plants and 218 are for expansions of present Illinois facilities. They represent all major industrial categories.

21,700 New Jobs
The developments, when completed, will provide an estimated 21,700 new jobs for Illinois residents and will occupy approximately 20,886,000 square feet of floor area. Projects announced during the third quarter alone should create about 6700 new job opportunities, he said.

Among the major proposals listed in the third quarter were the three-year, $120 million modernization and expansion program of Granite City Steel Co.; a $83 million nuclear power plant near Morris by Commonwealth Edison Co.; the second such plant announced this year by the firm; a $15 million nuclear fuel recovery plant, also near Morris, by General Electric Co.; and a $16 million printing plant in Matteson R. R. Donnelly and Sons. Illinois' record high in industrial development was reached last year when the number of new and expanded plants announced for construction totaled 513, the governor said.

GC 'Liftoff' is Educational Success

Project "Liftoff," a government-sponsored pre-kindergarten preparatory program for youngsters three and four years old is proving highly successful in its operation in the Granite City school district, according to Mrs. Ruth Lahr, director of the district's four Liftoff centers.

The project got under way early in September along with the regular school program and differs from the anti-poverty "Head-Start" program in that it continues throughout the school year instead of being limited to seven weeks as is the Head-Start project. Head-Start, in addition, is conducted only during the summer while the lengthier Liftoff Off Project coincides with the full, nine-month school year.

"We are in on the ground floor on most educational advantages," Mrs. Lahr said, adding "Liftoff is one of them." The federal program allotted the Granite City school district $171,000 last year to get the project in operation, and has awarded another $137,000 this year, making a total of $308,000. Mrs. Lahr said the project administrators have received indications that the 20% cut in this year's allotment may be restored within a short time, increasing the 1968-69 award.

The money received last year was used to construct separate building units at each of four chosen Liftoff centers within Granite City school district—Logan school, Washington School, Emerson School and Webster school. Two such units, separate from the main school buildings, were constructed.

At each center one of the units is used for the regular Liftoff project—instructional activities for the youngsters—while the other houses a separate and distinct remedial reading center which is a highly concentrated phase of the program.

The program now is accommodating more than 140 youngsters in the regular pre-kindergarten instructional program with two daily classes of 18 children each in operation at each of the four centers. One class of 18 is held during the morning and another class of 18 in the afternoon.

Size of remedial reading classes fluctuates, however, as groups in this phase of the program are held to a maximum of six pupils.

The remedial reading classes also are teaching youngsters up to six years old, and it appears probable that within the next year first graders who need remedial aid also will be referred to the reading units.

The pre-kindergarten teaching units are equipped with ample articles necessary to teach the youngster in adaption not only to everyday studies and play, but also to the routine activities of everyday living. The units are equipped with such items as model-size sinks, refrigerators, cupboards, dishes, telephones and similar items that acquaint the youngsters through actual use with objects necessary to modern-day living.

GC Steel Seeks Records

To Appeal State Decision

Granite City Steel Co. has obtained a writ of certiorari requiring the Industrial Commission of Illinois to produce records in a workman's compensation case. The writ is to be used to appeal a decision of the commission through a suit filed in Madison county circuit court last week.

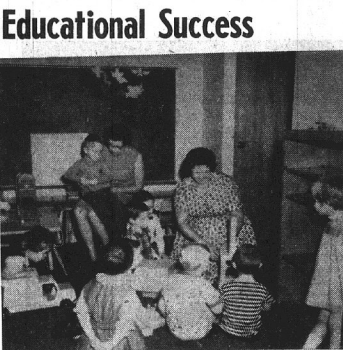

A decision by the commission handed down Oct. 3 favored mill employee William J. Coleman of St. Louis. The industry is asking the circuit court to set aside the decision.

Purchase of movie projectors tape recorders, educational films and similar items for each of the four centers has been made possible by the grants received thus far, Mrs. Lahr said. As a result, the Granite City centers are the best equipped and best staffed in the Midwest, she said.

In addition to a regular teacher for each of the four Liftoff Centers, to handle the pre-kindergarten classes, the current program also includes a remedial reading teacher at each of the centers, a nurse at each center and a counselor, also at each center. The program is administered by Mrs. Lahr, with the aid of a secretary. This provides a total staff of 18 persons.

Counselors are responsible for complete data and progress of pupils and nurses administer examinations and evaluate health histories of the pupils.

KUDEKA MARRIAGE IS ANNOUNCED

Announcement has just been made of the recent marriage of Mrs. Alice M. Kudelka and Joseph S. Kudelka.

The ceremony was performed Oct. 15 by Circuit Court Magistrate William E. Johnson in Collinsville. Attendants were Mrs. Florence Reilly and Bernard Caruso.

Miss Gloria Bieniecki and Fred P. Schuman Jr. Wed

Palms and ferns, together with altar bouquets of white pom-poms, lighted candles in candelabra down the aisle and white ribbon bows marking the family pews, provided the setting Saturday afternoon at St. John United Church of Christ for the wedding of Miss Gloria Bieniecki and Fred P. Schuman Jr.

Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bieniecki, 2308 St. Bernard avenue, and Associate Circuit Judge Fred P. Schuman, and Mrs. Schuman, 2850 Grand avenue.

Rev. Paul Surbey officiated at the 2 o'clock ceremony.

Mrs. Isabel Schmidt presided at the organ and accompanied the vocalist, Jerry Singleton, as he sang "Because," and the Lord's Prayer.

The bride was escorted by her father.

She was attired in a gown of ivory silk-faced peau de soie. The Empire bodice, appliqued with imported hand-clipped Chantilly lace and seed pearls, was designed with a scoop neckline and long tapered sleeves with lace motifs on the cuffs.

Pearted lace appliqued the A-line skirt and bordered the hem. Two large cabbage roses accented the full chapel train trimmed with circled lace motifs edged with lace and a double lace crown secured the bride's floor-length veil of ivory illusion.

She carried an off-side cascade of phalenopsis orchids, stephanotis and garlands of variegated ivy centered with a corsage of orchids.

Mrs. Dorothy Weckman, matron of honor, and Mrs. Carol Corey, Miss Janis Maciel, a cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Lynn Singleton, the bridegroom's sister, bridesmaids, were dressed alike in gowns of ivory chiffon velvet with fitted bodices styled with bateau necklines and bell shaped sleeves.

The A-line skirts were of satin linen. Matching sleeveless coats were trimmed with tiny velvet bows and pillboxes with large bows and circular marine veils were worn on their heads.

The honor attendant carried an offside line arrangement of pink gladiolus and foliage. The bridesmaids' flowers were white gladiolus combined with green and variegated ivy foliage, as were those of two junior bridesmaids; Lori Tesson and Shelly Singleton, both dressed like the older girls.

A little flower girl, Karen Maciel, the bride's cousin, in a long dress of candlelight tulle featuring an Empire bodice with a bateau neckline and a high waist trimmed in the back with two petite bows and a matching bow headpiece, carried a basket of green foliage, white flowers and rose petals.

Mark Spengler, the bridegroom's nephew, served as ring bearer.

Mr. Schuman's attendants were Ronald Burton, best man, Larry Corey, Ronald Abenroth, Gilbert Singleton, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, were groomsmen, serving with two junior groomsmen, Stanley Benecki and David Maciel.

The guests were seated by David Sparks and William Duckworth, ushers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Bieniecki chose a two-piece coat ensemble of ivory satin brocade with pink brown satin accessories. Her flowers were ivory stephanotis and fall foliage.

The bridegroom's mother wore a blue gray crepe dress beaded with pearls, matching accessories and a corsage of white stephanotis. A reception was held at Fischer's restaurant in Belleville after the church service.

Those assisting were Alexis and Stephanie Cochran, Sara Hillmer and Amy Benecki, who registered the guests, and Mrs. Cecilia Cochran, who was in charge of decorating.

The newlyweds will reside in the Plaza Apartments on Pontoon road.

The former Miss Bieniecki, who is employed as a deputy clerk in the office of the circuit clerk, was graduated from the Granite City high school and has a two-year associate degree in business from Southern Illinois University.

Mr. Schuman, also a graduate of the local schools, received a B.S. degree from SIU where he is now doing graduate work. His fraternity is Phi Sigma Kappa.

Warriors Combine Ground, Air Offensive to Top Tigers 22-6

Trojans Run Over Bulldogs 14-7, Climb to Tie for Third Place

"It was a team effort. The kids did a real nice job," commented head coach Jim Morrison as his Granite City Warriors upended Edwardsville 22-6 Friday night at the GCHS field. It was the Warriors' first victory in seven attempts.

The first score of the game appeared late in the first quarter in the form of a safety. With Edwardsville in possession on its own 10, and a fourth down punt, the Granite defensive line broke through and End Terry Moore leaped high and blocked the kick. Dan Partney pursued the Edwardsville punter and subsequently tackled him in the end zone for the two-point.

Productive Passes
Late in the second quarter, Granite City marched 35 yards for a touchdown. On a first down on the Edwardsville 35, Quarterback Steve Conway pitched to sophomore halfback Rich Rollins, who carried to the 20 and another first down.

After a clipping penalty sent the ball back to the 30, Quarterback Dave Snelson gave the ball to Rich Rollins, who scampered to the 19.

When the Warriors were faced with a big fourth-down play, Conway pitched to Keith Gauen on a halfback option. Gauen decided to pass, and it was a fortunate decision as he hit Left-half Ron Laws in the flats at the three-yard-line.

Partney Plunges Over
Dan, better known as "Bulldog," Partney, smashed to the one. On the next play from scrimmage, Partney went snuck up the middle and into paydirt for the six points.

Roger Belshie's kick from placement was good and as the half ended Granite held a 9-0 edge.

In the 3rd quarter, Edwardsville received one of its few breaks of the game when Halfback Rollins fumbled on the Granite City 37, with the recovery credited to Tigers Tackle Joe Leitner.

Tiger Quarterback Larry Freitag threw a complete to Dean on the nine for a first-and-goal. The next two plays netted a total of two yards to the seven. Faced with a serious threat the Warrior defense met the challenge and Edwardsville was forced to give the ball up on downs.

Snelson Sneaks
Following completed passes by Conway to Moore, the Warriors found themselves on the Edwardsville nine. Laws gained to the four, and Partney to the two. Showing brute strength, Snelson banged up the middle on a quarterback sneak for the second Warrior TD. Belshie took the ball through the uprights, giving Granite a 16-0 advantage.

Granite City scored again in the early part of the fourth period. With the ball on the Warrior seven, Conway gave to Partney, who snaked his way to the one.

Conway, fading back to pass, hit Jim Stuart on a flag pattern and he traveled 85 yards for the six points. Bill James' extra point boot was blocked. At this point of the game, the Warriors had a commanding 22-0 lead.

Edwardsville Scores
Midway through the fourth quarter, the Tigers marched 65 yards for their lone score of the game.

Quarterback Freitag resorted to his passing game and completed three tosses which brought the ball to the Warrior eight.

After Turner almost intercepted a Freitag pass to the touchdown. The extra point try failed with five minutes remaining.

Trophy Awarded
Before the game started, an announcement was made that the winner would receive a trophy commemorating these Edwardsville and Granite City players who gave their lives in defense of their country.

The trophy, awarded to the Warriors, was furnished by Ard-Dressel Foods Corp.

GC Harriers Run 9th in District

The Warrior cross-country team, competing against 21 other harrier teams in the Illinois High School Association district meet at Alton Saturday, finished ninth in the event, with Belleville winning first place.

Winner of the run was Edward Gerding of Collinsville with a time of 9:41. He will qualify for the state finals to be held in Champaign on Nov. 4.

Warrior top finishers were Joe Pashea, 23rd at 16:21; David Lomax, 33rd at 16:32; Gus Schalk, 41st at 16:40; Richard Hull, 46th at 16:58; and Mickey Kawu, 58th at 17:12.

The top two winning teams of the meet, Belleville, which won with 35 points, and Alton, which placed second with 41, will also run in the state finals.

Dick Harmon, Warrior harrier coach, said he was well pleased with the team. He added that this was its best effort this season.

With the district meet just of the season, the Warriors finished sixth in the conference.

The third finishing team at Alton means more than sixth in the conference," Harmon told the Press-Record.

GC Man Places First
Harold Carver, 2000 Sunset drive, told the Press-Record that after a recommission of scores of finishers in the Arlington golf course fall tournament ending last week, he took first place in the Class "C" flight.

Winning over Highland 14-7 Thursday in what was described as a second-quarter football game by Trojan Coach Glen Pickering. Madison moved into a third-place Midwest Conference tie with the Roxana Shells.

The Bulldogs tried to make it a "first-quarter game." They began the scoring only five minutes after Madison kicked off.

In a series of pass plays from Highland quarterback Brian Siewer to ends Dennis Warming and Craig Manwaring, the Bulldogs moved the ball from their own line.

Siewer threw a 20-yard pass to around end to score the second Manwaring, who was stopped on the five-yard-line. Bulldog Dar-PAT around end, bringing the ball to the 14. The Trojan defense for Highland's only TD of the game, providing a temporary 7-0 lead.

Early Drive Bags Down

After the Trojans received the kickoff from Highland on their own 40-yard-line, they moved the ball to within 20 yards of scoring territory on carries by Trojan backs Ron Burt and Tius Ship.

Ship made a "first and ten" at this point, the Trojan relinquished control of the ball.

Again the Bulldog combination of Siewer to Manwaring went into operation, but Trojan pass defense stopped Highland from making significant yardage in the first quarter.

When Trojan passing failed, Highland moved the ball from its own 24 to midfield, where the gain.

Ship, Burt Score
Beginning on their own 47-yard-line, the Trojans, with Burt, Ship and Jones carrying, moved the ball to the ground to the Bulldog four-yard-line, from where Ship ran off-tackle for Madison's first TD. Burt made the point after touchdown on an end run.

Highland gave up the ball after the Trojans kicked off. Another long drive by the Madison offense moved the ball from its own 35 to Highland's seven-yard-line.

At first down, Ron Burt ran to around end to score the second Trojan tally. Burt also ran the PAT around end, bringing the ball to the 14. Highland 7, with three minutes left in the first half.

"This week's drilling, especially by the time we spent on pass defense, really paid off during the second quarter," Pickering told the Press-Record.

He added that Manwaring, who has been the successful backs Ron Burt and Tius Ship, target of most of the Bulldog's long passes this season was at this point, the Trojan relinquished control of the ball.

Recover Kickoff

On the second half kickoff, Siewer recovered its own kick when Madison players failed to claim the ball on their own 47-yard-line. Again Highland attempted to operate its pass machine, but the Trojan defense held the visitors to a four-yard gain.

The Trojans and Bulldogs began exchanging the ball, and neither team could mount a successful drive during the remainder of the ball game.

Pickering said that once the Trojans stopped Manwaring, they gained confidence and were able to go ahead and score.

He noted that the Trojan defense improved greatly since the previous week's game with Roxana. "It was defense that made the difference," he commented.

The Trojans are now tied with Roxana with 22 records in the Midwest Conference, and have a 3-31 overall record so far this season. They will play conference leader Cahokia next, at Cahokia, Friday night.

The Comanches clinched at least a tie for the championship Thursday night when they edged Roxana 18-14 at Cahokia.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO
The Automobile Buying Public
EFFECTIVE TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1966, ALL MEMBERS OF THE GRANITE CITY AUTOMOBILE DEALERS ASSOCIATION WILL CLOSE BOTH THEIR NEW AND USED CAR SALES DEPARTMENTS AT 6 P.M.
ON TUESDAYS, THURSDAYS AND SATURDAYS

The decisions to close our Sales Departments on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings is motivated by our concern for our fine employees and their welfare. By giving each of them the same opportunity for normal home life with their families as is generally enjoyed today by most Americans—time to be with their wives and children, to enjoy social activities with their friends, to attend their PTA meetings, participate in civic affairs and have some of the leisure that is taken for granted by most of us today. We believe that the automobile-buying public will appreciate and understand—and accommodate their buying habits to the changed schedule.

Realizing that the purchase of a car, new or used, is a transaction usually participated in by both husband and wife—and that in many cases this can be done conveniently in the evening hours, all members of the Greater St. Louis Automotive Association and the St. Clair-Madison County Automobile Dealers Association will keep their Sales Departments

Children clad in a wide variety of costumes arrived at Harris school Thursday afternoon to take part in a Halloween parade and judging for prizes.

Madison police led the parade, with a number of band instruments being played by members of the band as kindergarten through third grade pupils of Harris school marched with their teachers, some also in costumes.

After traversing Alton avenue, Third street, Madison avenue and Sixth street, the group divided into grades on the school playground and was judged by members of the mothers' club.

Mrs. Virginia Landwehrer, Mrs. Ruth Fanning and Mrs. Joyce Walker were judges for the kindergarten and those of Mrs. Hancock, Patty Yurko and Kathy Belloc and Bobby Leggett, David Gibson and David Votopal.

Mrs. Rose Lawrence, Mrs. Christine Judd and Mrs. Beverly Topal chose the first grade winners, Linda Motes, Donna Wilson and Kimberly O'Dell and Ronald Lyster, Chris Blakeburn and Frankie Dutko.

Mrs. Margaret Feeney, Mrs. Ann Abernathy and Mrs. Rose Wallace selected Beekie Dyles, Darlene Gillan and Tammy Maers and Rudy Kangel, Gregg Obermair and John Palfelt Jr. of the second grade.

Mrs. Gisela Gott, Mrs. Marilyn Schaffner and Mrs. Carol Morris chose Anita Rogers, Kathy Radcliff and Kathy Wilson among girls of the third grade and Tim Shrader, Terry Howard and Michael McLaughlin, third grade boys.

The judges gave out candy trays to each boy and girl of Harris school as a gift from the mothers' club, as is done each year.

The children returned to their home rooms, where they received soda and popcorn. A number of during the parade and in the home rooms.

No 'Smoked-Filled Room' Nomination

To the Editor:

I would like to answer Quad-City, who thanked Dan McGee for backing the Republican candidate for Madison county treasurer instead of the Democratic candidate, John Maers.

From the tone of the letter I assume that he thinks the whole process of selecting Maers to run for treasurer was done by just a few people in a smoked-filled room. Nothing could be further from the truth.

In the June primary, Mr. Stephen Kennedy of Alton defeated Maers by 484 votes, a small margin for a countywide vote. When Mr. Kennedy suddenly died, a vacancy was created.

According to state laws, the entire Democratic caucus of Madison county had to meet and select someone to fill the vacant spot on the Nov. 6 election ballot. They did so at a meeting at the county court house in Edwardsville.

After the meeting was called to order, the chairman asked for

State Candidates

Percy for U. S. Senate

Illinois residents are fortunate to have two men of unusual ability and unquestioned integrity competing for one of their state's two seats in the United States Senate.

The Press-Record urges the election of Charles H. Percy, the Republican candidate, as best equipped to raise a strong voice against current trends and developments that are endangering the future of the nation.

The "chess and balances" of the two-party system have become too weakened nationally because of the 2-1 Democratic edge on Capitol Hill. Election of Percy would not only help numerically to restore the needed balance, but also would give the minority party a tremendous lift in its spirits and vigor.

State Candidates

The overriding national issues are war and inflation. Noting the presence of 300,000 American fighting men in Vietnam, Percy opposes withdrawal prior to achievement of a satisfactory result. But he is "deeply concerned" about the escalation. "He calls for the U. S. to seek new approaches to an honorable end" to the hostilities, and emphasizes that the U. S. should insist that its allies stop trading with North Vietnam.

Percy contends that "administration objectives and strategy should be much more clearly defined. More should be done to unify non-Communist elements in South Vietnam, so that the South Vietnamese can carry out their fair share of the war. Instead of it being their war, with U. S. assistance, it has become war."

Senator Paul H. Douglas, a Democrat seeking his fourth six-year term, supports the Johnson administration's war policy and, as a member of the party in power, is not in a position to challenge it effectively.

Percy, who offers broad business experience as well as comparative youth, is far from being a conservative. But he seems more likely to stress a realistic approach to this country's rapidly worsening monetary problems. "We believe this despite Senator Douglas' deserved reputation as a master of economic theory and despite the fact that the senator has alerted money to close tax loopholes and to cut the "fat" from military and other appropriations."

The incumbent has consistently supported and led liberalization of government-administered social welfare programs. These have served many humanitarian purposes and have become a part of the fabric of our society. He now favors continued socialization and centralization. "And, rather than meeting excessive federal spending head-on, he proposed a 5% income tax hike that would be returned to taxpayers during recessions. In successfully advocating U. S. "pump priming" during economic downturns, as proposed by Keynes, he has neglected the need for the omission of spending restraint and debt reduction during upturns."

As the challenger says, "Prices are going up faster than wages, and every housewife, every farmer and every person on a fixed income is feeling the pinch. Rising prices are imposing a heavy burden on millions of Americans. Federal spending must be reduced to cool off the economy."

Election of Percy need not reflect on the record of Paul Douglas, who has served the cause of democracy well both on the field of battle and in public office. His place in history as a great American statesman is secure.

A Percy victory would mean, rather, that Illinoisans have taken a positive stand in favor of a program ideally suited for the needs of the 1960s and 1970s—a strong economy combined with social dignity and opportunity, technological progress with full employment, provision of needed governmental services with defense of free enterprise and, most important, peace with universal justice.

Stevenson for State Treasurer

In the election of a new state treasurer Nov. 8, the contenders, Adlai Stevenson III, Democrat, and Harris Rowe, Republican, both are members of families with long and outstanding records in public life. Both are young but already have served in public office themselves as state representatives.

We do not agree with all of the reasoning used by Stevenson in opposing the state tax amendment, but his role as a dissenter could prove valuable in the treasurer office. If the Revenue Article is defeated, he could point out improved utilization of the existing tax structure. If the amendment is approved by voters, he could point out various pitfalls as legislators prepare to exercise their new constitutional authority.

As an independent thinker not content to blindly accept party policy, he could add luster to the ranks of Illinois state officials. Although his opponent also could serve ably, we will vote for Stevenson.

As in other statewide races, voters have a choice between candidates for Illinois superintendent of public instruction—Ray Page, Republican, the incumbent, and Dr. Donald Prince, Democrat, director of the Center of Educational Administration at Illinois State University.

The Press-Record endorses Page for re-election on his record.

Illinois has led the nation in the number of pre-school children enrolled in Head Start, the federally-aided classes intended to help the culturally disadvantaged benefit from later instruction.

This state is expected to rank first in both implementation and quality of programs under the U. S. Elementary and Secondary Education Act during its first year of operation. Programs for the handicapped, gifted and adults have been improved. Other progress during a time of fast growth and change also has been substantial. He has worked to improve education of youngsters on the nature of Communism and on advantages of the American way of life.

Both candidates favor making the state superintendent position appointive, but Page's retention of a public vote through election of a state board of education, rather than appointment of a board by the governor.

Barrett, Kluczynski for Supreme Court

Candidates for two vacant positions on the Illinois Supreme Court Nov. 8 are four Cook County residents—Thomas E. Kluczynski and Daniel P. Ward, Democrats, and Charles R. Barrett and Arthur W. Sprague, Republicans. Barrett and Ward are vying for an eight-year unexpired term; Kluczynski and Sprague are contenders for a four-year unexpired term.

The Press-Record favors the election of Kluczynski and Barrett.

Circuit Judge Barrett, 62, is a former commissioner of the Illinois Supreme Court and has been a circuit judge seven years. J. S. Circuit Court of Appeals Judge Kluczynski, 63, in that post three years, has been a judge since 1951, including municipal and circuit court service. Both have extensive experience and qualifications to serve on the state's highest tribunal.

The other candidates also have records of public service. Sprague, 64, served three terms in the Illinois House and is in his sixth term in the Illinois Senate, where he holds the Judiciary Committee. Ward, 48, former DePaul University law school dean, is state's attorney of Cook County.

Regardless of the outcome of the election, Republicans will retain a majority on the judicial posts. Election of Judge Kluczynski would increase Democratic representation from one to two justices.

The Case for Passage of a New Illinois Constitution Revenue Article

(Illinois State Chamber of Commerce)

The present Illinois revenue system is unfair, discriminatory and antiquated.

The present Revenue Article dates back almost entirely to the 1848 Illinois Constitution. Our revenue system is based on the ownership of real estate and tangible personal property of the state of 100 years ago when the ownership of real estate and tangible personal property was the basis of wealth.

The result is:

1. An excessive dependence on real estate for the support of local government and therefore an unfair burden on property owners.
2. An unrealistic requirement for taxing property on a basis that would actually be confiscatory in the case of stocks, bonds and savings and bank accounts.
3. A retailers' occupation tax—a legal device to collect a sales tax in Illinois but interpreted by courts such as the Illinois Supreme Court to prohibit from levying a tax without constitutional limitation or restriction.
4. Public finance on an income tax, without constitutional limitation or restriction.

Needs Increasing

Meanwhile, the needs of the state and the demands of the people for more state services mount.

School enrollments continue to rise.

Doom Looms for Neptune's Moon

(American Institute of Physics)

Anyone planning a space-age real estate deal in the vicinity of the eighth planet from the sun had better keep his options open.

Triton, one of giant Neptune's two moons, is headed for its last orbit—between ten million and one billion years from now.

Triton's fate is either to disintegrate and form rings around Neptune—like those around Saturn—or, less likely, to crash into the planet's surface.

According to Thomas B. McCord, a graduate student in planetary science at the California Institute of Technology, it is tidal friction that will do it in the haphazard way.

This celestial "rubbing" arises from the same gravitational attraction that exists between the earth and the moon, causing the rise and fall of ocean levels and small up-and-down movements of the solid earth.

In the case of Neptune and Triton, the situation is highly exaggerated, partly because of their large masses. Neptune is more than 17 times as massive as the earth, and Triton's mass is twice that of the moon.

Triton itself is peculiar in several ways.

Thought by some astronomers to be a huge iceball, Triton comes with only five other of the solar system's 31 moons the exceptional characteristic of a retrograde orbit.

It revolves around Neptune in a direction opposite to Neptune's spin.

It may be that Saturn's famous rings were formed from a satellite in retrograde orbit rubbed to bits by tidal friction.

A "yes" vote should be cast by all segments of Illinois citizenry—the homeowner, the parent, the educator, the business man, the laborer, the farmer, the salaried man and the farmer.

The amendment is a compromise developed by groups representing agriculture, education, business and labor which was approved with overwhelming support by the last session of the Illinois General Assembly.

"Modification of our revenue structure is necessary to finance the increasing costs of state and local governments. The proposal prohibits unfair and undesirable forms of taxation, develops the legislature clear authority to enact a broad-based system of taxation adequate to meet the needs of the state and local governmental services."

Spann has asserted.

"Adoption of the proposed amendment will make a major contribution to the creation of a fair tax structure and the continuance of a good business climate in Illinois."

FAVORS FLAT-RATE TAX UNDER REVENUE ARTICLE

To the Editor:

I must express an opposite interpretation of the proposed Revenue Amendment.

Your editorial interpretation expressed an opposition to the proposed Revenue Amendment on the grounds it removes fiscal control and places it in Springfield—and further that it promises substantial increases in state expenditures.

I believe you omitted some very pertinent facts from your editorial comments.

According to sources of information available, it is possible to enact a no-celling income tax under the present Revenue Article of the Illinois Constitution.

Passage of the proposed Revenue Article amendment does not then open the door for an income tax to effect it, the door to a no-upper-limit tax.

Mr. John Q. Citizen can vote "Yes" on Nov. 8, say: "My Legislator, you may not enact an income tax in excess of 3%."

Mr. Legislator must come back to Mr. John Q. Citizen in the event he enacts a flat-rate income tax of 3%, and find it insufficient to carry out governmental services in the future. John Q. is in full control of the say yes or no—insurance he does not presently have.

Facts available indicate the state of Illinois will be in the millions of dollars. The present Revenue Article in effect places a first mortgage on the real property of Illinois, pending payment of this indebtedness.

Some local property-owning John Q. Citizens may well remember a state property tax in the early '30s levied to pay a similar if smaller debt. He had no say then if he desired to relieve the state of its financial burden; he still has no say.

Government services will continue to increase. State income tax will continue to grow with these increased service demands. I for one feel the proposed Revenue Amendment should be passed to take property-owning John Q. Citizen off the hook.

FRANK THOMAS

Carlinville.

(Editor's note: The Illinois Supreme Court has held that a graduated income tax cannot be levied under the existing state constitution. Some legal authorities feel that a flat-rate income tax could be adopted without revising the Revenue Article.)

10% OF CHILDREN NEED PSYCHIATRIC TREATMENT

Certainly some of the suicide groups will be among these children. Preventive measures here would lay severe breakdown in later life.

RATE BOOST DISCUSSED

We read in the Press-Record where room rates at St. Elizabeth Hospital have been increased. The blame was put on the employees. Why if workers are always to blame?

Is it because it's an easy excuse? I think it's a shame to put the blame on these people. When St. Louis hospitals raised their rates some time ago, the workers weren't blamed; and many of them always have a doctor on duty.

Could the increase in rates have anything to do with the area coverage being greater? Another hospital is needed.

THE TWO-PARTY SYSTEM—ONE GOOD, ONE BAD

In answer to the Republican state senate candidate's statement concerning the Democrats wanting to take away from the two-party system, I want to say this is not true.

SUPPORTS FUCHS FOR COUNTY TREASURER

To the Editor:

In the June primary election, the voters nominated two good Democrats, Stephen Kennedy for county treasurer and Wilbur Trimpe for county superintendent. Fate played a cruel part, and Mr. Kennedy was taken from us.

Now the machine candidate, not the people's choice for treasurer, has been placed on the ballot. Those interested in good government in Madison county must vote against, not the Democrats, but the tactics used by them.

Dan McGee and my uncle Bill have endorsed Pete Fuchs for county treasurer. I ask all those who vote for me to do the same (there were 752) and all my friends to cast a vote for Fuchs.

County Bar Provides $1000 for Legal Aid

The Madison County Bar Association has authorized expenditure of up to $1000 of its funds to provide a start for the county's legal aid service program for the poor.

The federal government has approved a grant of $85,114 for the service under the anti-poverty program, but until recently attempts to acquire office space have been unsuccessful. Space has been committed in Edwardsville and Madison but not in Alton.

The legal aid society board, which will operate the program for the Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission, must provide 10% of "in-kind" contributions as supplies, cash and services.

MORE ABOUT Village Board

bers that the township highway department has removed snow from the village area without charge for the past two years and will provide other engineering services without fee during the same period.

Investigating further, into renewed drainage complaints from Lakeside Estates residents, Clarence Hudgens, village building inspector, said that in some instances drainage from guttering and rainpipes on several homes has created gullies in yards and resulted in excess water being emptied into subdivision streets. Hudgens also reported that an abandoned truck in the same area which was the subject of a complaint last month has now been removed.

Motor fuel tax funds remitted to the state in September, totaled $433, while department of revenue sales tax reimbursements amounted to $182 for the same period. Bills approved for payment, totaled $276.

The trustees will next meet at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Nov. 25, to discuss the regular meeting of the board, including Thanksgiving Day.

Party Fights, Five Side Issues Spark Election

To aid Quad-City and Madison county voters in determining the qualifications of candidates seeking office in the Nov. 8 election, the Press-Record publishes the following biographies and photographs. Other data on the Nov. 8 election is given on these pages.

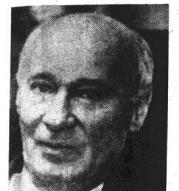

Many of the candidates are seeking re-election and have been campaigning on their past records. Some are making their first bid for public office and therefore have no public record upon which to base their issues.

Information in the biographies was obtained from the past records of the Democratic and Republican parties last June 14.

In the Nov. 8 election, successful candidates of each of these primaries oppose one another for election to office.

Congress

(34th congressional district—comprised of all St. Clair county and all Madison county except Alton, Godfrey, Moro, Foster, Helvetia, Saline, Lee, New Douglas, Marine, Hamel, Olive, Alhambra and Omphgent townships)

Melvin Price

Melvin Price, incumbent Democratic congressman has held the office since the early 1940's when he was elected while serving as an enlisted man in the Army. He now is a ranking member of the Joint House-Senate Committee on Atomic Energy and the House Armed Services Committee, and is considered one of the nation's top experts on the uses of atomic energy.

Price's home is in East St. Louis where he attended parochial schools. He also studied at St. Louis University High School and St. Louis University.

He worked as a news reporter in East St. Louis before entering politics in 1929 as a member of the St. Clair county board of supervisors.

He is 61 years old, married and has one son. He belongs to many civic and veterans organizations and is a member of the National Press Club.

He has asserted that the proposed revenue article threatens people with a continuing high sales tax with no exemptions for food or drugs, a higher tax on homeowners and an income tax to boot. He favors adoption of a flexible tax program allowing the Legislature right to adopt taxes.

Adlai Stevenson III

Adlai Stevenson III, son of the late Illinois governor, Democratic presidential candidate and ambassador to the United Nations, is not a newcomer to politics. His great grandfather was a vice-president and his grandfather was Illinois Secretary of State. Stevenson, 36, was elected to the House in 1964, leading all 236 candidates on the ballot. A Chicago attorney, he served as law clerk to justices of the Illinois Supreme Court in 1957-58 and is a director of several business concerns. He also holds farming interests. He is married and has four children.

The candidate graduated from Harvard College and the Harvard Law School, class of 1957. He is a veteran of the Korean war, serving with the Marines and attaining the rank of captain before his discharge.

Like his opponent, Stevenson has been active in civic and charitable organizations and has received the Best Legislator award of the Independent Voters of Illinois.

In his campaigning Stevenson not only disagrees with his opponent but also with Democratic Gov. Otto Kernon who believes that the proposed amendment to the revenue article in the State Constitution offers the best solution to Illinois' financial problems. The amendment will be voted on state-wide in the election.

He has asserted that the proposed revenue article threatens people with a continuing high sales tax with no exemptions for food or drugs, a higher tax on homeowners and an income tax to boot. He favors adoption of a flexible tax program allowing the Legislature right to adopt taxes.

Representative Voting Now on District Basis

John S. Guthrie

John S. Guthrie (R), Rural Route One, O'Fallon, is making his first bid for a major public office. He has served on the high grade school board and as a trustee of the village board of Shiloh. He also is a member of the Chamber of Commerce and previously of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Guthrie is a building contractor, is 32 years old, married and has one son and one daughter. He has three years of college.

He is a member of Belleville Carpenter's local 433 and of the Shiloh Methodist Church.

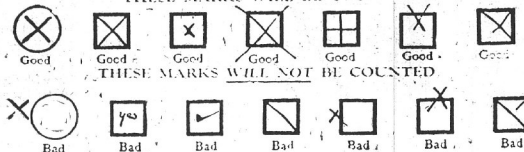

Guthrie was stationed at Scott Air Force Base with the Air Force in the early 1950's and his wife decided to stay in the area on his discharge. He is a native of Athens, Ohio. He attended Ohio State University and Belleville Junior college.

To Report Results

The Press-Record will tabulate election returns on election night and will report results by telephone to callers. First returns are expected around 8 p.m. Results will be available as soon as they are reported to the county clerk's office. Returns may be obtained by calling TR 8-2000.

State Treasurer Contest

Harris Rowe

Harris Rowe (R) like his opponent, is rich in the tradition of Illinois politics. Rowe, 42, an attorney and insurance executive of Jacksonville, is the son of Richard Yates Rowe, who was Illinois Secretary of State in 1944, State Treasurer in 1947 and gubernatorial candidate in 1952. Two of his ancestors served as Illinois governors, Richard Yates in 1815, and another Richard Yates in 1860.

Rowe served as an alderman eight years in Jacksonville before being elected to the Illinois House for the term beginning in 1961. He is now serving his third term in the Illinois House.

He attended Jacksonville schools and was graduated from the Illinois College and Northwestern Law School. He was admitted to the bar in 1950. He has been active in civic and charitable activities. He is married and has three children.

Oddly enough, Rowe sides with Democratic Gov. Otto Kernon in his stand on the adoption of the proposed amendment to the Revenue Act, believing that it offers the best available solution to Illinois' financial problems.

Rowe supports the revenue act because, he has said, it will improve the state's method of raising money and will insure residents a more equitable basis for paying state taxes. Rowe criticizes his opponent for supporting efforts to implement a graduated income tax in Illinois.

County Clerk's Office To Report Vote Returns

Results of the Nov. 8 election will be tabulated as usual in the offices of County Clerk Eulalia Hotz at Edwardsville.

Bulletin boards showing the vote as the tabulation proceeds, as well as the vote by precincts, will be maintained in the corridors outside the clerk's office.

Poling places will open in all Madison county precincts at 6 a.m. and will close at 6 p.m. Election returns will be reported to the county clerk's office immediately upon completion of the tabulation by precinct election judges.

Oddly enough, representative committee members of the 55th district entered into a special agreement last year calling for the nomination of three—instead of four—candidates in the primary election held last June 14. Since three representatives are to be elected, nomination in the primary was tantamount to election.

Those nominated, and therefore re-elected in the June primary were Lloyd "Curly" Harris of Granite City and Leland J. Kennedy of Alton, both Democrats, and Ralph T. Smith, Alton Republican, and former Granite Cityan. All are incumbents. As a result of the agreement, they are assured of office despite results of the Nov. 8 balloting.

The 55th representative district is now made up of Venice, Granite City, Mameoki, River, Collinsville and Alton townships.

YOU CAN LOSE your vote by improperly marking your ballot, even if you indicate clearly your choice of candidates. Election laws require a voter's choice be indicated with an X with the two lines of the X crossing inside the square opposite the candidate or issue upon which the vote is cast. The above diagram released by County Clerk Eulalia Hotz shows how to mark your ballot; also how not to mark it.

Donald M. Prince

Donald M. Prince, Democratic candidate, supports such a proposal while his opponent, Incumbent Superintendent Ray Page, Republican, opposes it on grounds that voters should be allowed to decide administration of education policies. Page maintains that if the superintendent of public instruction is appointed, then voters should be allowed to elect members of the State Board of Higher Education who now are appointed by the governor.

The superintendent of public instruction in Illinois is responsible for directing educational programs on the state level, setting standards for schools and evaluating education in the state.

Prince, 40, is a professor of education and director of the Center for Educational Administration at Illinois State University, Normal. He lives in Bloomington, is married and has two children.

The candidate was educated in the Crossville schools and has a degree from Murray State College in Kentucky in 1948. He holds a master's degree and a doctorate in educational administration from the University of Illinois. He is a Navy veteran.

High School Teacher Prince taught at Crossville high school and Norris City high school and became principal of Knoxville high school in 1952. He was named superintendent of Princeton Township high school in 1952 and received his present position in 1959.

The contest for the public instruction post has been marked by a dispute over federal aid to education. Page has bickered frequently with federal officials on educational matters, contending that federal aid to education, like all other federal programs, is approaching the problem backwards and is unrealistic and mired in restrictions and trivia.

Prince, on the other hand, has said the federal government is not a "bully in education" and that the state office must be a key pivot in cooperative federal-state-local education programs. He maintains that a state superintendent "who doesn't believe in the programs can't make them work."

In 1949 he became a teacher-coach at Williamsville high school and advanced to principal and superintendent of the district.

He became coach of the Springfield high school basketball team and a teacher there in 1959. The team won the Illinois championship that year. He has been active in numerous civic, educational and charitable organizations.

The mental health proposal was approved by referendum last August, only a few weeks before it approved the second proposal for a referendum on detention home construction.

$14,000 Annual Income The proposed detention home tax of 1 1/2 cents would produce an estimated $14,000 per year. The county has a tax surplus of about $15,000 in a special detention home fund.

In 1961, when a design for a county detention home was presented to the county board by an architect, the low figure was

Paul H. Douglas

Senator Paul H. Douglas, Democrat, is seeking a fourth six-year term as U. S. Senator and has been campaigning vigorously in his administrative record of 16 years in the Senate. His major campaign issue throughout the primary campaign, and more recently during the general election drive, has involved expansion of American action in Vietnam.

Douglas, who is 74, won the Senate seat in 1958, and long has been a leader of the China Lobby's movement to deny recognition or a United Nation seat to Red China.

In most of his previous campaigns, Senator Douglas has subordinated foreign issues to domestic ones. This year, however, the major issue has involved America's part in the Vietnam war and America's relations with China.

At the beginning of his campaign for re-election, Senator Douglas found in a tour of southern Illinois counties along the Mississippi that one question was foremost in people's minds—the Viet Nam war. A major question was why the United States, becoming increasingly committed with ground troops to a land war in Viet Nam.

Fought in Pacific This and other questions presented an irony to Douglas who has an emotional investment in the Pacific. He enlisted in the United States Navy at the age of 19 and fought in some of the most fierce battles in world war II. He won a bronze star at Okinawa and a Purple Heart for his hand and arm as the result of battle wounds.

During the Korean war he was one of the most vocal critics of those of America's allies. He became one of the Committee of One Million organizers for the China Lobby to rally support for Chiang Kai-shek and Nationalist China.

He is regarded in the Senate as one of the most conservative of its most conservative and civil rights.

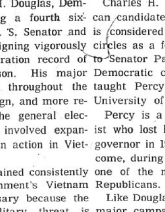

Senator Douglas formerly was a professor of economics at the University of Chicago, and much of his knowledge and insight into the economic picture stems from this background. As chairman of a Senate subcommittee investigating waste in military spending, he has been credited with saving the government $4.5 billion a year in his fight against military waste.

On Banking Committee

He is one of the top ranking Democrats on the Senate Banking committee which handles considerable business legislation other than that dealing with money and credit.

For example, he has attempted to obtain enactment of a law that would require installment purchasers be given more information on finance charges.

He has drafted, sponsored or co-sponsored a number of bills which have become law, including such measures as health insurance for the aged, federal aid to elementary education, federal aid to higher education, civil rights legislation, Social Security legislation, air and water pollution bills, highway beautification and tax cuts. He has authored a number of major acts such as the Minimum Wage Act, Area Development Act, Pension and Welfare Funds Disclosure Act, Economic Development Act and the Railway Retirement Reform Act.

Charles H. Percy

Charles H. Percy, 47, Republican, candidate for U. S. Senator, is considered in many political circles as a formidable opponent to Senator Paul H. Douglas, the Democratic candidate who once taught Percy economics at the University of Chicago.

Percy is a Chicago industrialist who lost his race for Illinois governor in 1964 but who has become, during the past two years, one of the nation's best known Republicans.

Like Douglas, Percy admits the major campaign issue this year is the war in Vietnam, but throughout the campaign has avoided a direct commitment as to escalation of the war or complete withdrawal. He has accused Douglas of being a "go along" senator who went along with the Administration and had to accept the responsibility for its shortcomings.

He has charged consistently that the Administration has failed to tell the truth about the Vietnam war, and has urged the government to make clear where it stands between the Vietnamese, with America helping one side, or whether it is America's war.

Directed Party's Funds Percy, who first attracted attention of the Republican party in 1957 when he successfully directed the party's fund-raising campaign in Illinois, has resigned as board chairman of Bell Howell Co. to seek the Senate post.

Percy repeatedly has urged the Administration to clarify its goals. He charged in campaign addresses that President Johnson implies that his policy means a continuation of the policy of President Dwight D. Eisenhower. However, Percy says, it is difficult to see how the same policy produced 700 Americans giving assistance and advice under President Eisenhower and the commitment of thousands under President Johnson.

Early in his campaign, Percy said that withdrawal from Vietnam would be a mistake, but at the same time said he was opposed to escalation of the war because it might spur Red China into an all-out war.

Supports Kaskaskia Valley

Percy has said that he does not oppose all spending and has expressed interest in some phases of the anti-poverty program.

The candidate has pledged support of the continued development of Kaskaskia Valley. He said that Carlyle and Shelbyville lakes, the canalization of the lower parts of the river and industrial and recreational development is one of the finest projects in the nation.

Percy has been attempting to overcome the shattering effects on Republican prestige of the landslide defeat of 1964, and at the same time has had to live down his own mistakes in confronting the militant conservative forces of former Senator Barry Goldwater two years ago.

The candidate was born in Pensacola, Fla., and was taken to Chicago by his family when he was two. He started working at Bell & Howell as a $12-per-week vacation employee while he was attending the University of Chicago.

Area, County Voters to Receive Six Separate Ballots in Nov. 8 Election

Paul H. Douglas

When Quad-City and Madison county voters go to the polls in next Tuesday's general election, each will receive from the election judges of his polling place six different ballots, all to be marked, folded and cast separately.

This multiplicity of ballots grows out of a series of special propositions on which voters are to cast "yes" or "no" votes.

To assist the voter in distinguishing between the different issues and the regular findings' ballot, the propositions, as well as a ballot on retention of circuit judges, will be printed on paper of various colors. Here's what the voter will receive:

White ballot—This will contain the names of all candidates to be voted upon in the general election. Voters will mark the usual X in the boxes opposite the names of the candidates of their choice.

Green ballot—Will provide for a yes or no vote on the retention of each of four associate circuit judges. Under this system circuit judges no longer seek office by competitive ballot, but by the wishes of the voters either retaining them in office or removing them. The four judges whose names will appear on this ballot are Austin Lewis of Madison, H. Streaper III of Alton, Fred P. Schuman of Granite City and Michael Kinney of Alton.

Blue ballot—A proposed constitutional amendment that would permit the legislature to completely revise the Illinois Revenue Code if the proposal is approved. This also is a yes or no vote in the box placed opposite the text of the proposal.

The amendment proposal is highly controversial and has been the topic of state-wide discussion during the past several months. State-wide civic organizations favoring and opposing the issue have been set up and have conducted district-wide forums and meetings to discuss details of the amendment.

Pink ballot—Little opposition, if any, has developed on this proposal which permits changes in the Illinois Banking Code if it is approved by a simple majority vote. The proposition would extend the extension of bank services to bank patrons and, as feared at first in some quarters, would not affect present bank branching regulations.

Allows 10-Cent Tax Tan ballot—Allows a tax rate of 10 cents per $100 valuation for establishment of a Mental Health Department in Madison county. Supporters of the plan contend only a small portion of the tax rate would be applied to raise necessary operations funds estimated at $175,000. A yes or no vote is required on this proposition to authorize or reject the tax.

Orchid ballot—Also a county proposition that would allow a 15-cent tax per $100 valuation tax to finance construction of a Madison County Detention home and its operation. This referendum, like that on the Mental Health District, was promoted by the Madison county board of supervisors.

While each voter will handle six separate ballots, the office of County Clerk Eulalia Hotz will conduct the task of computing returns of 12 separate ballots. The general election of candidates involves distribution, voting and computation of seven separate ballots through different areas of Madison county.

Redistricting of senatorial and representative districts a year ago split portions of Madison county into seven different areas that comprise parts of various senatorial and representative districts.

Registrations for the November election total 5,341,722. The decrease is since the June 14 primary.

State officials said they had no explanation for the reduction. Virtually the entire net decrease occurred in Chicago and Cook county. Chicago registrations were down nearly 160,000 and were 50,000 lower in Cook county outside Chicago.

There is a total of 10,767 precincts in the state for the Nov. 8 general election, an increase of 35 over the primary.

Voter Registration Drops in Upstate

A decrease of 221,611 in the number of registered voters in Illinois for the Nov. 8 election was reported last week by Secretary of State Paul Powell's office.

Registrations for the November election total 5,341,722. The decrease is since the June 14 primary.

State officials said they had no explanation for the reduction. Virtually the entire net decrease occurred in Chicago and Cook county. Chicago registrations were down nearly 160,000 and were 50,000 lower in Cook county outside Chicago.

There is a total of 10,767 precincts in the state for the Nov. 8 general election, an increase of 35 over the primary.

Succession of Treasurer, Sheriff is Nov. 8 Issue

The blue ballot which every Illinois voter will receive in the Nov. 8 election has been publicized principally because of the Illinois Revenue Act revision which it contains.

It submits, however, a second proposal that could affect every courthouse in the state—that on the question of whether or not county treasurers and sheriffs shall be permitted to succeed themselves in office. Like the proposed change in the revenue act, this proposition also requires a constitutional amendment.

Three unsuccessful attempts have been made to amend this constitutional provision since voters of the state ratified the present constitution in 1870. Sheriffs and county treasurers now serve only one four-year term in office, but may run again after a four-year lapse.

The proposition was defeated in 1944 by more than a million votes; in 1952 it lost by about 72,000 votes and in 1958 it lost by 260,000 votes.

Forbid Succession

At the present time Illinois and six other states, Alabama, Delaware, Kentucky, Mississippi, West Virginia and Wisconsin forbid sheriffs to succeed themselves in office.

In addition, three other states have milder restrictions. Indiana permits a sheriff to serve only eight years in any consecutive 12-year period. In Kansas they are not eligible for more than two consecutive terms and in Tennessee they may not serve more than six years in any consecutive eight-year period.

In the other 40 states there are no constitutional prohibitions on re-election of sheriffs. Only Illinois, Montana and Pennsylvania ban county treasurers from succeeding themselves. South Dakota formerly had such a limitation but repealed the provision. Two other states have milder restrictions. In Indiana county treasurers may serve no more than eight years in any consecutive 12-year period, and in Kansas they may not hold office for more than two consecutive terms.

In the remaining 45 states there are no prohibiting laws on the re-election of treasurers. If the proposition carries, the amendment becomes effective Jan. 1, 1967. If it fails, the proposal cannot be presented again for at least another four-year period.

Women Vie For Election As Madison County Clerk

Miss Eulalia Hotz

Eulalia M. Hotz, incumbent Madison county clerk since 1942 and an employee and deputy in the clerk's office for 16 years before assuming the clerk's post, is the Democratic candidate for re-election in the general election.

Miss Hotz had no opposition in the Democratic primary last June. The Republicans did not run a candidate for the office on their ticket.

Miss Hotz, 38, lives at 107 East College street, Edwardsville. She worked as a part-time clerk in the county clerk's office from 1926 through 1933 for her father, Joseph Hotz, who was county clerk for 11 years. She worked as a deputy clerk from 1933 for her brother. She was the first woman elected to county office in Madison county.

In 1961, she was named a public member of the Illinois Legislative Committee on Governmental Organization, known as the Kemmer Committee. Miss Hotz was re-named to the committee in 1963 and again in September, 1965.

In 1964, she was appointed a member of the County Auditor's Advisory Board for the State of Illinois by Michael Hewlett, Illinois auditor of public accounts, and was reappointed in July, 1965, by Hewlett for a three-year term.

Harold O. Swank, state director of Illinois Department of Public Aid, in 1965 appointed Miss Hotz to membership on the Welfare Services Board in the county, to serve a three-year term.

She is presently serving as a member of the Legislative committee of the Illinois Association of County Clerks and Records, a group of which she is a past president.

She has been active many years in the National Association of County Officials, has served the county as vice-president, district officer and member of the Legislative committee and is currently serving on the Mental Health committee of the county.

She formerly served on the State Advisory committee of the Illinois Council on Guidance, by appointment of former Superintendent of Public Instruction, George T. Wilkins.

Active for many years in both the American Cancer Society and the work of the Annual County Heart Fund Drive, she organized the Edwardsville Unit of the Cancer Society in 1948, and was Memorial Heart Fund chairman for Madison county. Her work in behalf of the Heart Association was recognized by the group by the presentation of a bronze medal for "meritorious service."

She is presently a vice-president of the Madison County Unit, American Cancer Society. She holds memberships in the following organizations: Honorary membership of the Venice Democratic Ladies Organization and member of the various Democratic groups in the county: Ursuline Auxiliary, Alton, Elizabeth Hospital Auxiliary,

Mrs. Vernice E. Wortman

Mrs. Vernice E. Wortman, 2460 Washington avenue, Granite City, is the Republican candidate for county clerk, winning nomination by a majority of write-in votes cast in the primary election last June.

Mrs. Wortman is a field supervisor of the school lunch department of the office of Ray Page, Illinois Superintendent of Public Instruction, and prior to joining that department worked for 12 years for the Secretary of State's office.

She has campaigned on a promise of serving "as fairly and efficiently as possible... to constantly strive for a more streamlined and economical operation, and to make the functions of the county clerk's office work to the best interests of all Madison county citizens."

She is married to Bruce G. Wortman, former mayor of Granite City, and the couple have one daughter who lives in St. Louis.

Mrs. Wortman is 56 and is a member of the Calvary Baptist Church, Business & Professional Women's Club, Pleasant Hill United Veterans Tent 92, Eagles Auxiliary, the United Fund, Mental Health Agency and National State and Local Republican Organizations.

Aim Registration Drives at 41,000 Unlisted on Books

Madison county has a population of 159,783 persons, and of these approximately 41,000 were not registered to vote earlier this year according to statistics of a private survey made at the request of State Auditor Michael J. Hewlett.

Hewlett said the intent of the survey was strictly political, and that is why it was done privately. He said he wanted the data and figures and had it collected also for 39 other downstate counties.

The data was considered accurate enough by the Democratic State Central Committee to use it in a voters' registration drive in various parts of the state. The survey indicated that

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO SECTIONS 1, 2, 3, 9, 10, 12 AND 13 OF ARTICLE IX (Revenue Article)

- Explanation of Amendment
- This Amendment would:
- Make no change in the present manner of taxing real estate.
 - Permit various kinds of personal property to be taxed at different rates and also permit the elimination of taxes on any or all types of personal property, for example, household goods and personal effects.
 - Permit the legislature to abolish the present retailers' occupation tax and use tax, and replace them with a true sales tax, under which such items as food and medicine could then be exempted.
 - Limit any income tax, if enacted, to a maximum of 3%, unless the people at a later election vote to increase the limit, but even then, not beyond 6%. If an income tax were adopted, all personal property taxes would be abolished. Further, the proceeds of at least the first 1% rate of income tax, if enacted, shall be distributed to local governments to replace the revenue from the personal property tax.
 - Equalize the bonding power of school districts.

St. Louis Car Bids Low On $46 Million Job

The St. Louis Car Division of General Steel Industries, Inc., apparently is low bidder for $46 million in new subway cars for the New York Transit Authority, it was reported last week by the New York agency.

Announcement of the low bid followed a reported unsuccessful attempt to force the Authority to consider bids by foreign bidders. Undercarriages of subway cars frequently are produced at the Granite City plant of General Steel Industries, a spokesman said.

Officials of the authority appealed to AFL-CIO Chief George Meany and officials of the Labor Department to intervene before the order to consider foreign bidders was rescinded by the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

St. Louis Car Co. is the largest supplier of subway and surface rapid transit equipment in the country and is currently competing about $23 millions worth of work for the New York Authority.

Holtgrave-Gadwell Vows Exchanged at St. Mark's

Miss Connie Gadwell, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gadwell, 1651 Market street, Madison, became the bride of David Holtgrave, son of Mrs. Rose Mary Holtgrave, 2429 Washington avenue, and the late Alvin Holtgrave Saturday morning at St. Mark's Catholic Church, Venice.

The altar, decorated with bouquets of white pom poms, provided the setting for the 9 a.m. ceremony. Father Robert C. McCarthy officiated.

Miss Mary Frances Lee presided at the organ. A dress of pure silk designed with three-quarter sleeves, trimmed with imported Venice lace and trimmed with pearls, was worn by the bride. A fingertip veil formed of three tiers of tulle was held in place by a Dior bow.

The bride's bouquet consisted of white roses, orchids and lilies of the valley.

Mr. Gadwell escorted his daughter down the white-carpeted aisle, giving her in marriage.

Miss Beverly Gadwell, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her dress of aqua crepe had a scooped neckline and elbow.

length sleeves. Her accessories were also aqua. She carried deep pink roses and carnations with matching ribbon.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Gadwell selected an azure knit suit with matching accessories and a corsage of cymbidium orchids trimmed with ribbon to match her suit.

The bridegroom's mother wore a moss green knit suit. Her corsage was also of cymbidium orchids tied with green ribbon.

Don Tonase was best man and Gene Hatfield served as usher.

A reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gadwell in the evening. The couple will reside in Kileen, Tex. The groom is serving in the Army and is stationed at Fort Hood, Tex.

The bride is a graduate of Madison high school and attended Southern Illinois University.

Mr. Holtgrave graduated from Granite City schools and was a student at Southern Illinois University.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding were Earl Crisel and his wife, Mrs. Clara Crisel, of St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. Holtgrave will be married at St. Mark's Catholic Church, Venice, Ill., on Saturday, Nov. 10, at 9 a.m.

Ill., the groom's grandmother, Mrs. Gladys Wicklen of Milwaukee, Wis., and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Schilling of Ellis Grove, Ill.

Some of our most important customers are experts in electronics

...such as Jimmy Edwards...and General Electric

Just a small amount of electricity is all it takes for Jimmy Edwards' tinkering.

General Electric's big Decatur plant is something else again. Its hundreds of machines use enormous blocks of electric power.

But to Illinois Power, both are important customers. Years ago, we planned and built the huge power plants and transmission lines it takes to serve General Electric or any manufacturer, no matter how big. And we've built a staff of 3,000 skilled people, trained in the Illinois Power idea that every customer is very important to us, no matter how small.

We never stop working to improve our service. For Jimmy Edwards.

For General Electric. And for you.

MORE ABOUT Shermer

juvenile cases involving people of the Jewish faith.

Noting the Communist menace, the governor stressed that the world will not remain "half slave and half free" and called for vigilance, social conscience and good will.

He was introduced by Appellate Judge Joseph Goldenshler, noted the vigilance, social conscience and good will.

Kolitz said Arab states are more opposed to Israel now than when it was established 18 years ago, in contrast to other instances in which war enemies are now friendly. He attributed this to pathological prejudice, Moslem fanatics, Communist intrigues and former German Nazis residing in Egypt.

Shermer's uncle, the late Ben Berner, and the late Avery Carper were among those instrumental in founding the federation of Jewish residing in small communities. It now extends from Idaho south to Cairo, covering about half of Illinois, and includes Cape Girardeau, Mo.

The voluntary association conducts joint fundraising, community planning to serve local, national and world Jewish needs and responsibilities.

After initial aid to European Jews in world war II, it extended its concern to the needs of Jewish people in southern Illinois and to a share of the responsibility for sustaining Jewish and civic institutions throughout the U. S.

His headquarters are in East St. Louis, and Hyman H. Ruffman is executive director.

Muse Yearbook Wins All-American Honors

The Associated Collegiate Press has awarded All-American honors to the 1966 yearbook at the Southern Illinois University-Southern Campus.

Editor of the award-winning book, the Muse, was Miss Donna Yates, who was also named homecoming queen for the campus last Friday night. Her associate editor was John Cavan.

The SIU-SU Campus seniors are both graduates of Edwardsville High School.

Founded in the school year 1900-01, the six-year-old Muse won second-class ratings during the first two years and first-class awards for the subsequent three years.

IACP judges emphasize excellence in editorial and pictorial content in five areas which they consider basic functions of a yearbook: memory book of students, record of the year, public relations medium, student project, and reference work.

Effective use of originality, imagination and ideas distinguish them from books which receive lower ratings.

Miss Shirley Fuller, editor of the 1967 Muse; Miss Ginger Dustman, associate editor; and Mrs. George Arnold, adviser, have just returned from a three-day conference of ACP held in the Benjamin Franklin hotel in Philadelphia, where they learned of the honor rating received by the Muse.

Fruits are an important part of every brunch. For a real treat, you might serve broiled grapefruit with brown-sugar topping. Fruits in season are always appropriate, and frozen fruits add to the variety.

Use your imagination when selecting breads. For something different, try cornbread with crumbled bacon bits, banana nut bread, English muffins or scones, maple or cinnamon toast or gingerbread muffins. Streusel-topped coffee cake is always popular.

A main dish of creamed chipped beef with mushrooms or creamed chicken in pancake roll-ups hits the spot in a chilly mood. Try cold turkey and hot foods piping hot and cold foods crisply chilled. And have plenty of hot coffee or other beverages so that guests can enjoy a second, third or even fourth cup if they wish.
